

MR. SANDEEP CHAUHAN

Mr. Sandeep Chauhan is a seasoned civil servant and a 1989 batch officer of the Indian Revenue Service (IRS), having served the Income Tax Department with distinction for over 33 years. He superannuated as the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax on 31st May 2023. Throughout his distinguished career, Mr. Chauhan held various key positions across the country and played pivotal roles in tax administration, enforcement, litigation, and appellate functions. His early assignments included handling assessments and participating in search and seizure operations while serving as Assistant/Deputy Commissioner in Dehradun, Meerut, and Muzaffarnagar. As Joint/Additional Commissioner in locations such as Mathura, Amritsar, Haridwar, and Dehradun, he led Income Tax Ranges, overseeing survey operations, revenue collection, judicial proceedings, and the achievement of budget targets. He also headed the TDS Range in Dehradun, monitoring TDS compliance and collection. Upon promotion to Commissioner of Income Tax, Mr. Chauhan served as the Departmental Representative before the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) at the Allahabad and Amritsar benches, defending departmental interests in appellate matters. He later discharged quasi-judicial responsibilities as an Appellate Commissioner, adjudicating first appeals with due regard to principles of natural justice. In his role as Principal Commissioner of Income Tax in Mumbai, he was entrusted with administrative oversight of multiple Ranges, ensuring compliance, revenue mobilization, and supervision of survey operations. Notably, from September 2020, he played a crucial role in the implementation and supervision of the Faceless Assessment Scheme introduced by the Department, guiding officers through the transition and ensuring timely completion of critical assessments and penalty orders. Elevated to the post of Chief Commissioner of Income Tax in December 2022, he served in Kolkata and continued to lead the faceless assessment charge until his retirement. Known for his integrity, leadership, and team-building skills, Mr. Chauhan has consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to the goals of the Income Tax Department.
